Dear Patron:

The Old Dominion Dental Society is one of the oldest African-American dental organizations in America. This proud organization was founded in 1913 and has represented the hopes and aspirations of the African-American dentist in Virginia.

The Society will hold its 106th annual convention at the Embassy Suites Hotel on April 5th-7th, 2019. The address is 1700 Coliseum Drive Hampton, Virginia 23666. The convention will be hosted by the Norman Lassiter Dental Society.

It has always been our tradition to sponsor high caliber dental educational and scientific sessions at this convention. Each year we award a scholarship to an African-American dental student at any of the dental schools in the United States to aide with his/her dental education.
